Message From Messe Düsseldorf

Dear exhibitors, dear visitors,

We were very pleased to have welcomed you to the second edition of pacprocess Middle East Africa 2021.

So much has happened since the first show in 2019. Many trade fairs and events in the world were postponed or cancelled due to the Covid-19 pandemic. During this time though, one thing became very clear: Face-to-face meetings and interactions are not replaceable by digital alternatives. This made us all the more excited for pacprocess MEA 2021.

Although international travel restrictions were still in effect, exhibitors and visitors came together in one place to meet, get to know each other, build trust and do business, making pacprocess MEA a top-class event for Egypt and the whole Middle East region again. This is what we were really looking forward to, pacprocess MEA was held parallel to Food Africa thus creating a number of synergies for both exhibitors and visitors.

The significance of the Egyptian market and the Middle East region made pacprocess MEA a must-attend event. As a member of the interpack alliance, pacprocess MEA also benefits from an international network of trade fairs and industry expertise. With all that pacprocess MEA had to offer, exhibitors were sure to find what they were looking for.

Looking forward to welcoming you again in 2022

Yours truly,
Thomas Dohse

FOOD AFRICA & PACPROCESS 2021 TESTIMONIALS

Sidrah Haque
Trade and Investment Attaché
Embassy of Pakistan

"The Food Africa 2021 edition saw the biggest Pakistani participation in the show's history. This is an encouraging sign for the Trade Section that businesses in Pakistan see opportunities in the agro-food market here. Many debut exhibitors did not expect the level of footfall they received, and other exhibitors were enthused with the variety of countries that were represented in all days of the event. I am confident that the upcoming edition will witness an even bigger and better showcase."

Roman Medvedskiy
Belyov Pastila
Russia

"This is the first time we participate in Africa specifically in Egypt and was very pleased with the high level of organization of this event. We had a lot of business meetings with different profile and promising future deals. The presence of our Ministry of Agriculture was very helpful also. Will definitely exhibit at the show again next year."

Ashish Bansal
Indika
India

"Food Africa 2021 is a huge event and we have been exhibiting in many fairs but this one grew very big and would like to increase our presence in Cairo and other parts of Africa. We signed 2 deals on the first day and would definitely participate in the next edition. We thought that we will meet only Egyptian clients, but we met many clients coming from Iraq, Libya, Algeria, Sudan and the African region"

Abdullah Alhudaithi
Al Nakheel Al Ali Littoumour.
Kingdom of Saudi Arabia

"This is our first time we participate at Food Africa. It exceeded our expectations with the high level of organization and the quality of visitors. We signed deals with big distributor companies and the market is very promising. We are definitely coming back next year!"

The 7th International

Egypt International
Exhibitions Center - EIEC

Food Africa 2022

A Unique International Investment and Trade Gateway to One of the Biggest Food Markets in the World

Food Africa, the International Trade Exhibition for Food & Beverages, resumes its 7th edition establishing itself as a global brand developed to create an efficient network between international traders and vendors with their counterparts from Egypt, the MENA, and the African region.

The event is a multilateral platform for wholesalers, distributors, and retailers to meet with industry professionals aiming to address the different needs of buyers and importers, and to serve new markets in Egypt and Africa.

For exporters seeking new sales, the exhibition provides a trade and sourcing platform without equal, and for suppliers it offers a prime opportunity to pitch against competitors, demonstrate strength on a global level, and gauge demand for new products in this evolving market.

Combining an innovative format of showcasing products, networking with local, regional, and international industry stakeholders, and matching buyers with suppliers, Food Africa is the ultimate destination for exploring new business opportunities.

Last year's edition of Food Africa welcomed 16,233 visitors from 32 countries. This year, the show, packed with new features, is set to be grander and is expected to attract larger numbers.

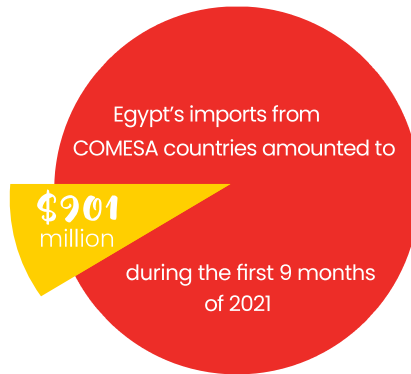

Large demand to a growing variety of foods and beverages from around the world

The Egyptian food and beverage sector is expanding rapidly, fueled by large demographics, a fast-growing economy and higher liquidity – thanks to the openness in the economy and the increasingly affluent residents' demand to a growing variety of products. The development of ambitious hypermarkets, new hotels, restaurants, and fast-food projects is further driving the demand for food and beverage from around the world. Catering services are also witnessing rapid growth as official and private banquets, receptions, and gatherings are on a rapid growth.

Access Africa's massive food market through Egypt

Due to a combination of population growth, rising incomes, and urbanization, strong demand is driving global food and agricultural prices higher, and is proving tremendous opportunities in the trade market and domestic agriculture. Africa's food market is expected to grow more than triple to $1 trillion by 2030, which would support trade fortunes for farmers, food processors, and agribusinesses, with Egypt being one of the world's fastest growing markets for food and agricultural products, and one of the largest manufacturing bases in Africa, offering huge business potential.

Egypt's proximity to key global markets, its favorable growing conditions, and its advantageous agricultural calendar are all factors contributing to positioning the Food and Agro industries as the most dynamic and fastest growing sectors in Egypt.

Driving Egypt's growing food and beverage sector is its burgeoning population, growing at around 2.3 – 2.5% per year, who spend over 30% of their income on food (current population is over 105 million).
